Entertains For Niece

A lawn party was given by Mrs. August Crusger, 608 Prairie street, Tuesday afternoon in honor of her niece, Miss Marjane Chadak of Menasha. Miss Chadak and her sister, Betty, are spending the week with their uncle and aunt here, before Miss Chadak enters St. Agnes' School of Nursing at Fond du Lac on August 18. Four tables of cards and luncheon were played on the lawn. High scores in 500 were held by Mrs. Herman Krueger and Mrs. Joseph Siebert, and the luncheon winners were Mrs. Ted Strong and Mrs. William F. Cruiger. The guest of honor was presented a gift from her friends. Lunch was served on the lawn at the close of the afternoon.

Entertainment At Park

A program of unusual interest has been promised for this Thursday evening by the promoters of the weekly outdoor entertainments at Iveson park. This week's show will include Eddie King, known as the ukulele king, who has appeared with Fred Allen and Rudy Vallee and on other radio programs, Johnny Weber, acrobat and hand balancer, Kuma, Japanese magician, Vic Randall, accordionist, Jack Donahue, contortionist, and June Harper, acrobatic dancer. This is the ninth entertainment in a series of 12.

Kiwanis Club

A talk on the national army was given by James Van Wageningen at a regular meeting of the Kiwanis club, held Tuesday noon at Hotel Whiting. Mr. Van Wageningen began with the volunteers of Washington's time, and closed with the description of the life of the national guardsmen in a camp of today. He was introduced to the club by Robert R. Mather.

Preliminary plans were begun for the biennial Kiwanis minstrel, which will be given this fall for the benefit of the community welfare fund.

Return From Lakes

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ringdahl and children, Joan, Judy and Jimmy, returned to their home at 317 South Illinois avenue, Saturday after spending six weeks at Blue Gill cabin on Rainbow lake, Waupaca Chain of Lakes. Mrs. Francis W. Strom and children, Bobby and Sally, of Eau Claire, formerly of Stevens Point, spent a week at the lake with them. During the Ringdahls' absence their house was occupied by the Homer Willem family of Brussels while Mr. Willem attended the summer session of Central State Teachers college.

Supper Party In Garden

The colorful flower garden of Mr. and Mrs. Elaine D. Causton, 621 Elk street, was the setting for a supper party given Tuesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Carlton for the women employes of the Copps company office in Stevens Point. Bright colored nasturtiums decorated the tables. After the supper the guests adjourned to the house for bridge. Honors were awarded Misses Helen Becker, Daisy Duke and Charlotte Green.

Marriage Licenses Issued

Spring and summer marriages in Portage county, which always play an important part in the social activities of the season, were the most numerous in May this year. Thirty-nine licenses were issued that month June, though the traditional month of brides, has been trailing May the last few years and this year also came second, with 25 licenses. Only 13 licenses were issued in July.

Lone Pine Reunion Held

Renewing old acquaintances was the order of the day at the annual reunion of the Lone Pine School association, held Sunday, July 30, at the Plainfield Community hall. A morning of reminiscences was followed by a picnic dinner, and a picnic supper was served after an afternoon business meeting and program. The meals were served cafeteria style from a long table arranged by the committee in charge.

At the business meeting, W. D. Corrigan of Milwaukee, who was instrumental in re-organizing the reunion and who has been president for three years, asked to be released from office and nominated Ira D. Wood of Manawa as his successor. Mr. Wood, who was unable to attend the reunion because of the serious illness of his mother, Mrs. Sarah Wood of Portage, was unanimously elected. Milton Smith of Milwaukee was elected vice-president by a unanimous vote, and Mrs. R. S. Rogers of the town of Almond was re-elected secretary and treasurer.

Songs by a trio composed of Roger Hoffman, Walter Tess and Douglas Janacek, accompanied by Miss Juanita Minor of Almond, were enjoyed after the program. They sang "Those Pals of Ours," "Ain't Gonna Study War No More," "Down My Bible" and "Tavern in the Town." They numbers were so much enjoyed that they were invited to come again next year.

One hundred and twenty-five people were present for the occasion. Coming the longest distance were Mrs. Kate Wiley of Monrovia, near Los Angeles, California, who was a pupil at the Lone Pine school 63 years ago when Miss Lillian Gustin was the teacher, and Jimmie Gustin from San Francisco, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gustin of Menosce Jimmie belongs to the navy and has already left to join his ship with China as his destination. Others from a distance were Miss Ella Radcliffe of Minneapolis, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Weckler of South Bend, Indiana, and Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Corrigan, Mrs. Helen Corrigan and Milton Smith of Milwaukee. Many attended from Stevens Point, Plainfield, Almond, Waupaca and Hancock.

Appreciation to the Plainfield people and C. O. Gout for the use of the hall was expressed by Mr. Corrigan. Announcement was made that the reunion next year will be held at the same time and the same place.
