Peter Tomaszewski

Peter Tomaszewski, aged 90, a pioneer resident of the town of Stockton, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Nick Klopotek of that town, at 11 o'clock Monday evening, of pneumonia. He contracted pneumonia last Wednesday and because of his advanced age, his condition was serious from the first. He retained consciousness, however, until his death.

Mr. Tomaszewski was born in Poland in 1841, and was married in that country. His wife died on the ship on which they were enroute to the United States 60 years ago. Mr. Tomaszewski located immediately in the town of Stockton, where he lived the rest of his life, and his marriage to Mrs. Rosalie Andryski of that vicinity took place shortly after his coming to that town. Mrs. Tomaszewski died 19 years ago.

Surviving are one son, Anton Tomaszewski of the town of Stockton; one daughter, Mrs. Nick Klopotek on the home farm; three stepsons, Paul and Phillip Andryski of Chicago and John Andryski of Milwaukee; 19 grand children, two great grandchildren and 12 step grandchildren.

The funeral will take place at 9 o'clock Thursday morning at Sacred Heart church at Polonia with Rev. Leo Jankowski officiating and burial in the church cemetery.

Mrs. Herman Tiarks

Mrs. Herman Tiarks of the town of Almond, aged 47, died at St. Joseph's Hospital last Thursday
